Re: Tri-City Americans Hockey Club
Response to December 30, 2014 Inquiry

Dear Ms. Kane:

This letter is in response to your December 30, 2014 letter requesting additional information from hockey teams operating within the Western Hockey League (WHL) in the state of Washington. This letter contains the Tri-City Americans' responses to your inquiries. We feel that it is important to note that the Tri-City Americans provide each amateur athlete on its team with an education, sports training, and the availability of a post-secondary academic scholarship. The players are in the same position as other amateur athletes playing in elite leagues on their high school teams or in the NCAA – many of whom receive the same type of benefits. Moreover, the Tri-City Americans' players and their families – like those playing football, basketball, baseball, and soccer for the University of Washington and their respective families – know that they are making an agreement to play amateur athletics at the highest level of competition without becoming professionals. None of these amateur athletes are employees of their respective teams or schools, and neither the players, their parents, the team, nor the WHL have ever understood otherwise.

The Tri-City Americans have been operating in the same manner under the law since 1988. For approximately 27 years, the Tri-City Americans have provided an outlet for skilled and talented amateur hockey players to play at the highest level of amateur hockey.

The Tri-City Americans provide the following responses to L&I's specific inquiries:

Inquiries Regarding Players

Inquiry No. 1. Please describe how players join your team.

Response to Inquiry No. 1. In general, the Tri-City Americans scout and recruit amateur athletes in a similar manner to NCAA schools. While some players are drafted as part of the WHL Bantam Draft, others are invited to a training camp where they try out for the team. Players ultimately join the Tri-City Americans by signing or their parents signing a WHL agreement, a copy of which was provided to L&I on February 19, 2014 with the response from the WHL and Affiliated Teams. Players are not eligible to be on the Tri-City Americans until the year of their 15th birthday.

Inquiry No. 2. What restrictions, if any, are there on a player's ability to play for other hockey teams while playing for your team?

Response to Inquiry No. 2. Players are eligible to play at whatever level of amateur hockey they choose. The WHL is a top amateur hockey league. Once a player is placed on the Tri-City Americans' Club Protected List, he is not eligible to play for another team, unless he is released, traded or assigned to a lower category of hockey. Prior to becoming a player on the active roster, a player will normally continue his development at either the Midget or Junior A or B level.

Inquiry No. 3. Can a player be traded, promoted, or demoted from your team? Explain how such a process works.

Response to Inquiry No. 3. Players can be traded within the WHL. However, trades are rare, especially for high school players. The system of drafts and trades is needed to balance the level of competition in the league to maximize the development of the players. However, there are neither promotions nor demotions. A player may be assigned to a lower category of hockey for further development. A player who signs an NHL contract may also join an NHL Club as an underage player.

Inquiry No. 4. How many players from the 2013-14 season remained on your team for the current season (2014-2015)?

Response to Inquiry No. 4. 14.

Inquiry No. 5. What restrictions, if any, apply to the number of 15, 16 and 17 year old players a team may have?

Response to Inquiry No. 5. The WHL does not restrict the number of 17-year-old players on the Tri-City Americans' roster. The WHL limits the number of 16-year-old players permitted to play in the WHL to 88 players. The WHL only allows 15-year-old players to participate in a 5-game tryout or following the conclusion of their non-WHL hockey season. This usually occurs if the team happens to be near the player's hometown, or if another player is recovering from an injury and a short-term substitution is needed.

Inquiry No. 6. Please provide name and contact information for all 15, 16 and 17 year olds that have signed standard player agreements for last season (2013-2014) and the current season (2014-2015).

Response and Objection to Inquiry No. 6. The Tri-City Americans object to this inquiry on the grounds that it requests confidential information for minor individuals. Without waiving this objection, below is a chart containing the contact information for the parents/ guardians of relevant 15-, 16-, and 17-year-old players:

Inquiry No. 7. Please provide one copy of a signed player agreement from this season or last season. If any player agreement from this season or last season differs from the standard agreement, please provide that.

Response to Inquiry No. 7. Attached as Exhibit 1, please find an executed player agreement between the Tri-City Americans and Maxwell James. The Americans are prohibited by League rules from making a different arrangement with any player and adhere to this rule.

Inquiries Regarding Scheduling and Play Time

Inquiry No. 8. Please describe the annual schedule for the last WHL season, and the players' responsibilities under the schedule.

Response to Inquiry No. 8. For the 2013-2014 Season, the Tri-City Americans began training camp and tryouts on August 22, 2013.

Players are obligated to attend all games and practices for the team. They are also expected to comply with school obligations, as well. As they likely would be at home, players are subject to discipline, including suspension, if they fail to meet their academic responsibilities.

Inquiry No. 9. Do the players adhere to a standard practice schedule from week to week? If so, please describe.

Response to Inquiry No. 9. In general, the players, like other amateur athletes playing team sports, adhere to a standard practice schedule. See Exhibit 2 (Example of Schedules from 2014-2015). It is important to note that nearly all amateur athletic programs, particularly those with a high level of competition, have standard practice schedules week to week. Compare <http://www.azcentral.com/story/sports/college/asu/2014/07/22/asu-releases-football-practice-schedule/12996019/> (Arizona State University's August 2014 Practice Schedule (excluding weight lifting and film sessions), with Exhibit 2.

Inquiry No. 10. Please describe a player's schedule on home game day and an away game day.

Response to Inquiry No. 10. While schedules vary from time to time, in general, the players follow the schedules set forth in Exhibit 2. It is important to note that this is no different than a typical schedule for other amateur athletes playing highly competitive team sports – like NCAA or high school football, basketball, soccer, baseball, or hockey.

Inquiry No. 11. If some players' weekly schedules varied from the practice and performance schedule described above, please explain.

Response to Inquiry No. 11. See Response and Objection to Inquiry No. 10.

Inquiry No. 12. Please provide any schedule maintained by the team that reflects travel to away games, including departure and return times for last season and the current season.

Response to Inquiry No. 12. See Response and Objection to Inquiry No. 10. See also Exhibit 2.

Inquiry No. 13. Are the players supervised while playing, practicing, and traveling? By whom?

Response to Inquiry No. 13. Yes. The players are supervised at all times during games, practices and while traveling. They are supervised by the Head Coach, Assistant Coach, Athletic Therapist, Equipment Manager, and General Manager. Players also have access to a coordinator who monitors and helps them with school arrangements.

Inquiry No. 14. What limitations or restrictions apply to playing or practice time for 15, 16 and 17 year old players on the team?

Response to Inquiry No. 14. Aside from limitations referenced in the Response and Objection to Inquiry No. 5, there are typically no limitations on practice for 15-, 16-, and 17-year-old players. However, players are at home as school necessitates on practice days and game days. When the team is on the road, 16- and 17-year-old players have the same schedule as the rest of the team.

Inquiry No. 15. Please list, along with job titles, all employees of the team for last season (not including players).

Response to Inquiry No. 15. See Exhibit 3 (List of Employees for 2013-2014 and 2014-2015 Seasons).

Inquiry No. 16. Please list, along with job titles, all current employees of the team (not including players).

Response to Inquiry No. 16. See Exhibit 3 (List of Employees for 2013-2014 and 2014-2015 Seasons).

Housing and Other Compensation

Inquiry No. 17. Where do players live while they are playing for your team?

Response to Inquiry No. 17. All players, except for two, live with host families in and around Kennewick, Washington. The two players who do not live with Host Families are local players who reside with their parents.

Inquiry No. 18. If players live with families in the community, how are those families compensated?

Response to Inquiry No. 18. All host families receive two full season tickets, monthly meat and bread delivery, and $200 per month to help cover food costs and other incidentals.

Inquiry No. 19. Do players receive any other housing benefits? If yes, please describe:

Response to Inquiry No. 19. No.

Inquiry No. 20. How much are the monetary stipends the players receive?

Response to Inquiry No. 20. Players under 20 years of age receive $250 per month as expense money. Players who are 20 years of age receive $350 per month as expense money.

Inquiry No. 21. How are the stipends paid? (by check? How frequently?)

Response to Inquiry No. 21. Players are given the expense money over two payments per month, both of which are paid via check.

Inquiry No. 22. Does the amount of a player's stipend vary from year to year?

Response to Inquiry No. 22. No.

Inquiry No. 23. Do the players receive bonuses during the course of the season? If so, what are the criteria for receiving bonuses?

Response to Inquiry No. 23. Players do not receive bonuses.

Inquiry No. 24. What type of visas, if any, do players have to obtain to play for the team in the United States?

Response to Inquiry No. 24. Canadian and European players obtain P-1 VISAS.

Inquiry No. 25. Do the players receive a 1099 and/or a W-2 tax form?

396

Response to Inquiry No. 25. No.

Inquiry No. 26. Do players receive any other form of financial assistance other than that described above?

Response to Inquiry No. 26. The Tri-City Americans pay for travel to training camp in the fall and the player's return home after the season. The Tri-City Americans also pay the airfare for players to travel home at Christmas time. If a player has a car, the Tri-City Americans provide the player a $100 per month gas allowance.

Educational Information

Inquiry No. 27. Do any of your current players attend high school in Washington State? If so, please identify those players.

Response to Inquiry No. 27. Yes, Maxwell James, Jordan Topping, Austyn Playfair, Evan Sarthou, Parker Wotherspoon, Ty Comrie, Brendan O'Reilly, and Dylan Coghlan attend high school in Washington State.

Inquiry No. 28. Are any accommodations made to a high school student's schedule to facilitate their hockey schedule?

Response to Inquiry No. 28. Not as to academic requirements. Practice for the entire team is planned to fit around the players' school schedule where possible. High school students sometimes join team practices already in progress, depending upon their class schedules. Online coursework is made available to some players where appropriate. Further, the team provides tutors to assist players with their studies.

Inquiry No. 29. Do the players receive any high school credit for their hockey play?

Response to Inquiry No. 29. Some players receive high school credit for playing hockey.

Inquiry No. 30. For high school students, what educational expenses does the team or league provide for?

Response to Inquiry No. 30. Aside from the scholarship program referenced in the February 19, 2014 Position Statement, on an individual basis, the Tri-City Americans pay for school supplies and the tutor referenced above. Further, the Tri-City Americans pays the cost of all required online classes.

Inquiry No. 31. What kind of college scholarships are offered by the league and/or individuals teams?

Response to Inquiry No. 31. See Position Statement, at pp 4-5 (Feb. 19, 2014) (describing WHL Post-Secondary Academic Scholarship).

Inquiry No. 32. What restrictions, if any, apply to the how the players may use the college scholarships, such as limits on courses of study or time frames for use of the scholarships?

Response to Inquiry No. 32. The WHL Scholarship is guaranteed to each player through him and his parent or guardian signing a WHL Standard Player Agreement, provided he does not sign a professional hockey contract in the NHL or with a top-level European club. Players are allowed to play one season of minor professional hockey (AHL, e.g.) before activating the scholarship. Also, while using his WHL Scholarship, the player must remain a full-time student and must not be forced to withdraw due to failure to maintain passing grades. The value of the scholarship can be applied to any post-secondary institution or career enhancing program. The value of the tuition is based on the player's home province publicly funded university or college. The scholarship must be activated no later than 18 months following the player's final year of eligibility as a 20 year old in the WHL.

Inquiry No. 33. How many players have accessed and used the available scholarships in the last 3 years? At what institutions?

Response to Inquiry No. 33. In the last 3 years, 546 WHL players have received WHL scholarships at 118 post-secondary institutions.

Post WHL

Inquiry No. 34. In the last three years, how many players from your team have gone on to play in the National Hockey League or other professional hockey league after their career in the WHL?

Response and Objection to Inquiry No. 34. From the 2011-2012, 2012-2013, and 2013-2014 seasons, a total of 11 former Tri-City Americans have gone on to play professional hockey in either the National Hockey League or other professional hockey leagues.

Inquiry No. 35. In the past three years, how many players from your team have gone on to play college hockey in Canada or elsewhere?

Response and Objection to Inquiry No. 35. From the 2011-2012, 2012-2013, and 2013-2014 seasons, a total of eight former Tri-City Americans have gone on to play college hockey in Canada or elsewhere.

Inquiry No. 36. In the past three years, have any of your former players sought to have their NCAA eligibility restored?

Response and Objection to Inquiry No. 36. The Tri-City Americans are not aware of any players from the 2011-2012, 2012-2013, and 2013-2014 seasons who sought to have their NCAA eligibility restored.

Team Information

Inquiry No. 37. Please describe your team's ownership structure.

Response to Inquiry No. 37. The Tri-City Americans are organized as a corporation, Top Shelf Entertainment. The shareholders are four individuals.

Inquiry No. 38. Are you associated, formally or informally, with any other amateur, professional, or semi-professional hockey leagues in the United States or Canada?

Response to Inquiry No. 38. The Tri-City Americans are a member club of the Western Hockey League (WHL). The WHL is a member of the Canadian Hockey League (CHL). The WHL and the CHL are registered members of Hockey Canada, the national governing body of amateur hockey in Canada. The WHL Washington and Oregon based Clubs are registered members of U.S.A. Hockey, the national governing body of amateur hockey in the United States. The CHL and WHL have an agreement with the National Hockey League (NHL) regarding players drafted to play professional hockey.

Inquiry No. 39. Do you receive payments from professional hockey leagues or teams either directly or indirectly through the WHL? If so, please describe what those payments are related to?

Response to Inquiry No. 39. Through the NHL/CHL agreement referenced in Response and Objection to Inquiry No. 38, the WHL receives a development grant from the NHL which provides financial assistance for player development and education, coaching and officiating development and health and wellness programs.

Inquiry No. 40. What was team's gross revenue from ticket sales last season (2013-2014)?

Objection to Inquiry No. 40. The Tri-City Americans objects to this inquiry as it is irrelevant to L&I's investigation and the central question whether or not the player relationship is employment or some other relationship. This information also has no bearing upon any question that would affect any matter to be investigated or any relief to be sought. The Tri-City Americans' gross revenues from ticket sales last season (2013-2014) has no relation to L&I's investigation in this case, which concerns whether the Tri-City Americans are employing minors in violation of the child labor rules under WAC 296-125.

Inquiry No. 41. What is the gross revenue for ticket sales to date, for this season?

Objection to Inquiry No. 41. The Tri-City Americans object to this inquiry as it is irrelevant to L&I's investigation and the central question whether or not the player relationship is employment or some other relationship. This information also has no bearing upon any question that would affect any matter to be investigated or any relief to be sought. The Tri-City Americans' gross revenues from ticket sales this season (2014-2015) has no relation to L&I's investigation in this case, which concerns whether the Tri-City Americans are employing minors in violation of the child labor rules under WAC 296-125.

Inquiry No. 42. What was the total attendance last season (2013-2014)?

Response to Inquiry No. 42. The total attendance for Tri-City Americans' 36 home games during the 2013-2014 regular season was 152,022 people. By way of comparison, the total attendance for the University of Washington Huskies' 7 home football games in 2013 was 481,384 people. See Exhibit 4 (2013 National College Football Attendance Records).

Inquiry No. 43. What was the average per game attendance for the 2013-2014 season?

Response to Inquiry No. 43. The average per game attendance for the Tri-City Americans in the 2013-2014 regular season was 4,223 people. By way of comparison, the average per game attendance for the University of Washington Huskies' 7 home football games in 2013 was 68,769 people. See Exhibit 4 (2013 National College Football Attendance Records).

Re: Everett Silvertips Hockey Club
Response to December 30, 2014 Inquiry

Dear Ms. Kane:

This letter is in response to your December 30, 2014 letter requesting additional information from hockey teams operating within the Western Hockey League (WHL) in the state of Washington. This letter contains the Everett Silvertips' responses to your inquiries. We feel that it is important to note that the Everett Silvertips provide each amateur athlete on its team with an education, sports training, and the availability of a post-secondary academic scholarship. The players are in the same position as other amateur athletes playing in elite leagues on their high school teams or in the NCAA – many of whom receive the same type of benefits. Moreover, the Everett Silvertips' players and their families – like those playing football, basketball, baseball, and soccer for the University of Washington and their respective families – know that they are making an agreement to play amateur athletics at the highest level of competition without becoming professionals. None of these amateur athletes are employees of their respective teams or schools, and neither the players, their parents, the team, nor the WHL have ever understood otherwise.

The Everett Silvertips have been operating in the same manner under the law since 2003. For approximately 12 years, the Everett Silvertips have provided an outlet for skilled and talented amateur hockey players to play at the highest level of amateur hockey.

The Everett Silvertips provide the following responses to L&I's specific inquiries:

Inquiry No. 1. Please describe how players join your team.

Response to Inquiry No. 1. In general, the Everett Silvertips scout and recruit amateur athletes in a similar manner to NCAA schools. While some players are drafted as part of the WHL Bantam Draft, others are invited to a training camp where they try out for the team. Players ultimately join the Everett Silvertips by signing or their parents signing a WHL agreement, a copy of which was provided to L&I on February 19, 2014 with the response from the WHL and Affiliated Teams. Players are not eligible to be on the Everett Silvertips until the year of their 15th birthday.

Inquiry No. 2. What restrictions, if any, are there on a player's ability to play for other hockey teams while playing for your team?

Response to Inquiry No. 2. Players are eligible to play at whatever level of amateur hockey they choose. The WHL is a top amateur hockey league. Once a player is placed on the Everett Silvertips' Club Protected List, he is not eligible to play for another team, unless he is released, traded or assigned to a lower category of hockey. Prior to becoming a player on the active roster, a player will normally continue his development at either the Midget or Junior A or B level.

Inquiry No. 3. Can a player be traded, promoted, or demoted from your team? Explain how such a process works.

Response to Inquiry No. 3. Players can be traded within the WHL. However, trades are rare, especially for high school players. The system of drafts and trades is needed to balance the level of competition in the league to maximize the development of the players. However, there are neither promotions nor demotions. A player may be assigned to a lower category of hockey for further development. A player who signs an NHL contract may also join an NHL Club as an underage player.

Inquiry No. 4. How many players from the 2013-14 season remained on your team for the current season (2014-2015)?

Response to Inquiry No. 4. 14.

Inquiry No. 5. What restrictions, if any, apply to the number of 15, 16 and 17 year old players a team may have?

Response to Inquiry No. 5. The WHL does not restrict the number of 17-year-old players on the Everett Silvertips' roster. The WHL limits the number of 16-year-old players permitted to play in the WHL to 88 players. The WHL only allows 15-year-old players to participate in a 5-game tryout or following the conclusion of their non-WHL hockey season. This usually occurs if the team happens to be near the player's hometown, or if another player is recovering from an injury and a short-term substitution is needed.

Inquiry No. 6. Please provide name and contact information for all 15, 16 and 17 year olds that have signed standard player agreements for last season (2013-2014) and the current season (2014-2015).

Response and Objection to Inquiry No. 6. The Everett Silvertips object to this inquiry on the grounds that it requests confidential information for minor individuals. Without waiving this objection, below is a chart containing the contact information for the parents/ guardians of relevant 15-, 16-, and 17-year-old players:

Players are obligated to attend all games and practices for the team. They are also expected to comply with school obligations, as well. As they likely would be at home, players are subject to discipline, including suspension, if they fail to meet their academic responsibilities.

Inquiry No. 9. Do the players adhere to a standard practice schedule from week to week? If so, please describe.

Response to Inquiry No. 9. In general, the players, like other amateur athletes playing team sports, adhere to a standard practice schedule. See Exhibit 2 (Example of Schedules from 2014-2015). It is important to note that nearly all amateur athletic programs, particularly those with a high level of competition, have standard practice schedules week to week. Compare <http://www.azcentral.com/story/sports/college/asu/2014/07/22/asu-releases-football-practice-schedule/12996019/> (Arizona State University's August 2014 Practice Schedule (excluding weight lifting and film sessions), with Exhibit 2.

Inquiry No. 10. Please describe a player's schedule on home game day and an away game day.

Response and Objection to Inquiry No. 10. While schedules vary from time to time, in general, the players follow the schedules set forth in Exhibit 2. It is important to note that this is no different than a typical schedule for other amateur athletes playing highly competitive team sports – like NCAA or high school football, basketball, soccer, baseball, or hockey.

Inquiry No. 11. If some players' weekly schedules varied from the practice and performance schedule described above, please explain.

Response and Objection to Inquiry No. 11. See Response and Objection to Inquiry No. 10.

Inquiry No. 12. Please provide any schedule maintained by the team that reflects travel to away games, including departure and return times for last season and the current season.

Response and Objection to Inquiry No. 12. See Response and Objection to Inquiry No. 10. See also Exhibit 2.

Inquiry No. 13. Are the players supervised while playing, practicing, and traveling? By whom?

Response and Objection to Inquiry No. 13. Yes. The players are supervised at all times during games, practices and while traveling. They are supervised by the Head Coach, Assistant Coaches, Athletic Trainer, and Equipment Manager. Players also have access to a coordinator who monitors and helps them with school arrangements.

Inquiry No. 14. What limitations or restrictions apply to playing or practice time for 15, 16 and 17 year old players on the team?

Also, while using his WHL Scholarship, the player must remain a full-time student and must not be forced to withdraw due to failure to maintain passing grades. The value of the scholarship can be applied to any post-secondary institution or career enhancing program. The value of the tuition is based on the player's home province publicly funded university or college. The scholarship must be activated no later than 18 months following the player's final year of eligibility as a 20 year old in the WHL.

Inquiry No. 33. How many players have accessed and used the available scholarships in the last 3 years? At what institutions?

Inquiry No. 40. What was team's gross revenue from ticket sales last season (2013-2014)?

Objection to Inquiry No. 40. The Everett Silvertips objects to this inquiry as it is irrelevant to L&I's investigation and the central question whether or not the player relationship is employment or some other relationship. This information also has no bearing upon any question that would affect any matter to be investigated or any relief to be sought. The Everett Silvertips' gross revenues from ticket sales last season (2013-2014) has no relation to L&I's investigation in this case, which concerns whether the Everett Silvertips are employing minors in violation of the child labor rules under WAC 296-125.

Inquiry No. 41. What is the gross revenue for ticket sales to date, for this season?
