Re: Spokane Chiefs
Response to December 30, 2014 Inquiry

Dear Ms. Kane:

This letter is in response to your December 30, 2014 letter requesting additional information from hockey teams operating within the Western Hockey League (WHL) in the state of Washington. This letter contains the Spokane Chiefs' responses to your inquiries. We feel that it is important to note that the Spokane Chiefs provide each amateur athlete on its team with extensive benefits including an education, sports training, travel, equipment, and access upon graduation to a post-secondary academic scholarship. The players are in the same position as other amateur athletes playing in elite amateur sport leagues on their high school teams or in the NCAA - many of whom receive the same type of benefits. Moreover, the Spokane Chiefs' players and their families - like those playing football, basketball, baseball, and soccer for the University of Washington and their respective families - know that they have entered into an agreement to play amateur athletics at the highest level of competition without becoming professionals. None of these amateur athletes are employees of their respective teams or schools, and neither the players, their parents, the team, nor the WHL have ever understood otherwise.

The Spokane Chiefs hockey club has been operating in the same manner under the law since 1985 when they started in Spokane. For approximately 30 years, the Spokane Chiefs have provided an outlet for skilled and talented amateur hockey players to play at the highest level of amateur hockey.

The Spokane Chiefs provide the following responses to L&I's specific inquiries:

Inquiries Regarding Players

Inquiry No. 1. Please describe how players join your team.

Response to Inquiry No. 1. In general, the Spokane Chiefs scout and recruit amateur athletes in a similar manner to NCAA schools. While some players are drafted as part of the WHL Bantam Draft, others are invited to a training camp where they try out for the team. Players ultimately join the Spokane Chiefs by signing or their parents signing a WHL Standard Player Agreement, a copy of which was provided to L&I on February 19, 2014 with the response from the WHL and Affiliated Teams. Players are not eligible to be on the Spokane Chiefs protected list until the year of their 15th birthday.

Inquiry No. 2. What restrictions, if any, are there on a player's ability to play for other hockey teams while playing for your team?

Response to Inquiry No. 2. Players are eligible to play at whatever level of amateur hockey they choose. The WHL is a top amateur hockey league. Once a player is placed on the Spokane Chiefs' roster, he is not eligible to play for another team, unless he is released, traded or assigned to a lower category of hockey. Prior to becoming a player on the active roster, a player will normally continue his development at either the Midget or Junior A or B level.

Inquiry No. 3. Can a player be traded, promoted, or demoted from your team? Explain how such a process works.

Response and Objection to Inquiry No. 3. Players can be traded within the WHL. However, trades are rare, especially for high school players. The system of drafts and trades is needed to balance the level of competition in the league to maximize the development of the players. However, there are neither promotions nor demotions. A player may be assigned to a lower category of hockey for further development. A player who signs an NHL contract may also join an NHL Club as an underage player.

Inquiry No. 4. How many players from the 2013-14 season remained on your team for the current season (2014-2015)?

Response to Inquiry No. 4. 15.

Inquiry No. 5. What restrictions, if any, apply to the number of 15, 16 and 17 year old players a team may have?

Response to Inquiry No. 5. The WHL does not restrict the number of 17-year-old players on the Spokane Chiefs' roster. The WHL limits the number of 16-year-old players permitted to play in the WHL to 88 players in total. The WHL only allows 15-year-old players to participate in a 5-game tryout or following the conclusion of their non-WHL hockey season. This usually occurs if the team happens to be near the player's hometown, or if another player is recovering from an injury and a short-term substitution is needed.

Inquiry No. 6. Please provide name and contact information for all 15, 16 and 17 year olds that have signed standard player agreements for last season (2013-2014) and the current season (2014-2015).

Response and Objection to Inquiry No. 6. The Spokane Chiefs object to this inquiry on the grounds that it requests confidential information for minor individuals. Without waiving this objection, below is a chart containing the contact information for the parents/ guardians of relevant 15-, 16-, and 17-year-old players:

Response to Inquiry No. 7. Attached as Exhibit 1, please find an executed player agreement between the Spokane Chiefs and Tyson Helgesen. The Chiefs are prohibited by League rules from making a different arrangement with any player and adhere to this rule.

Inquiry No. 8. Please describe the annual schedule for the last WHL season, and the players' responsibilities under the schedule.

Response to Inquiry No. 9. In general, the players, like other amateur athletes playing team sports, adhere to a standard practice schedule. See Exhibit 2 (Monthly Calendars). It is important to note that nearly all amateur athletic programs, particularly those with a high level of competition, have standard practice schedules week to week. Compare <http://www.azcentral.com/story/sports/college/asu/2014/07/22/asu-releases-football-practice-schedule/12996019/> (Arizona State University's August 2014 Practice Schedule (excluding weight lifting and film sessions), with Exhibit 2.

Response to Inquiry No. 30. Aside from the scholarship program referenced in the February 19, 2014 Position Statement, on an individual basis, the Spokane Chiefs pay for certain high school expenses incurred by players if the expenses are over and above what the players would have had to pay at home for the same course. Players are allowed to play one season of minor professional hockey (AHL, e.g.) before activating the scholarship. Also, while using his WHL Scholarship, the player must remain a full-time student and must maintain passing grades. The value of the scholarship can be applied to any post-secondary institution or career enhancing program. The value of the tuition is based on the player's home province publicly funded university or college. The scholarship must be activated no later than 18 months following the player's final year of eligibility as a 20 year old in the WHL.

Inquiry No. 33. How many players have accessed and used the available scholarships in the last 3 years? At what institutions?

Response to Inquiry No. 34. From the 2011-2012, 2012-2013, and 2013-2014 seasons, a total of nine former Spokane Chiefs have gone on to play professional hockey in either the National Hockey League or other professional hockey leagues.

Inquiry No. 35. In the past three years, how many players from your team have gone on to play college hockey in Canada or elsewhere?

The WHL and the CHL are registered members of Hockey Canada, the national governing body of amateur hockey in Canada. The WHL Washington and Oregon based Clubs are registered members of U.S.A. Hockey, the national governing body of amateur hockey in the United States. The CHL and WHL have an agreement with the National Hockey League (NHL) regarding players drafted to play professional hockey.

Inquiry No. 39. Do you receive payments from professional hockey leagues or teams either directly or indirectly through the WHL? If so, please describe what those payments are related to?

Response to Inquiry No. 39. Through the NHL/CHL agreement referenced in Response and Objection to Inquiry No. 38, the WHL receives a development grant from the NHL which provides financial assistance for player development and education, coaching and officiating development and health and wellness programs.

Inquiry No. 40. What was team's gross revenue from ticket sales last season (2013-2014)?

Objection to Inquiry No. 40. The Spokane Chiefs object to this inquiry as it is irrelevant to L&I's investigation and the central question whether or not the player relationship is employment or some other relationship. This information also has no bearing upon any question that would affect any matter to be investigated or any relief to be sought. The Spokane Chief's gross revenues from ticket sales last season (2013-2014) has no relation to L&I's investigation in this case, which concerns whether the Spokane Chiefs are employing minors in violation of the child labor rules under WAC 296-125. The Spokane Chiefs respectfully decline to respond to this inquiry.

Inquiry No. 41. What is the gross revenue for ticket sales to date, for this season?

Objection to Inquiry No. 41. The Spokane Chiefs object to this inquiry as it is irrelevant to L&I's investigation and the central question whether or not the player relationship is employment or some other relationship. This information also has no bearing upon any question that would affect any matter to be investigated or any relief to be sought. The Spokane Chief's gross revenues from ticket sales this season (2014-2015) has no relation to L&I's investigation in this case, which concerns whether the Spokane Chiefs are employing minors in violation of the child labor rules under WAC 296-125.

Inquiry No. 42. What was the total attendance last season (2013-2014)?

Response to Inquiry No. 42. The total attendance for Spokane Chiefs' 36 home games during the 2013-2014 regular season was 226,792 people (including playoff games). By way of comparison, the total attendance for the University of Washington Huskies' 7 home football games in 2013 was 481,384 people. See Exhibit 8 (2013 National College Football Attendance Records).

Inquiry No. 43. What was the average per game attendance for the 2013-2014 season?

Response and Objection to Inquiry No. 43. The average per game attendance for the Spokane Chiefs in the 2013-2014 regular season was 5,968 people. By way of comparison, the average per game attendance for the University of Washington Huskies' 7 home football games in 2013 was 68,769 people. See Exhibit 8 (2013 National College Football Attendance Records).

Subject: Spokane Chiefs Car Allowance 2014-2015

Rick,

As per previous seasons, the Spokane Chiefs will pay our players a gas allowance for travel to and from Eagles Ice Arena. Eagles is our alternate off site practice facility which is a ten mile round trip from the Spokane Arena.

Our players are expected to car pool (ten cars traveling to Eagles) and we will reimburse the player pool $40 for each practice at Eagles. The breakdown is $.40 per mile for travel. The exception is September when we have more players, so more vehicles. We will pay for twelve vehicles instead of ten thus paying $48 for each September practice.

In September we practiced at Eagles 13 times so we will pay $624 (13 x $48) to the player pool.

We will also reimburse our players with vehicles who need to drive the younger players to school based on the same formula.

Thank you.
